

5. Share with one another some creative methods or resources to help get children reading and thinking about truths from the Bible.

6. Is there a particular sin that you know you should confess to your children?

7. How is God prompting you to pray for children under your influence?

Let's Pray:

Sermon Notes

A Mother's Ministry

Various Texts

May 12, 2024

Growth Group Homework

For the week of 05/12/2024

Adapted from James Galvin, ed., et al., New Testament Lesson Maker, NavPress, Colorado Springs, CO, 1992, pp. 291-2; Lyman Coleman, et.al., eds., Serendipity New Testament for Groups, Serendipity House, Littleton, CO, 1986, p. 405.

Getting Started:

1. Can you relate to not meeting expectations – either your own, or that of others? How so?

Digging Deeper:

2. Read 2 Timothy 1:5, 3:14-17. How long had Timothy known the Holy Scriptures, and who are Lois and Eunice? What role do you suspect they played? (For more background, consider Acts 16:1-3.) Who have been some key family members (or friends) in your own spiritual heritage? How have they influenced you?
3. One hundred years from now, what do you think family members will say about your contribution to their spiritual heritage? How do you hope to pass on your beliefs (through your children, a journal or book, etc.)?
4. Paraphrase Deuteronomy 6:6-9 into modern language and situations. Summarize the main point.